Description

ITENE is a reference research centre in development of sustainable materials, circular economy, biotechnology, health and safety, packaging, logistics, mobility and transport, among other disciplines. We have a success track record of +70 participations and 14 coordinated projects between FP7 and H2020, besides 7 more projects recently approved in Horizon Europe including a coordination. The ITENE research centre provides companies with cutting-edge knowledge and technology to build a safer and more sustainable future. Our mission is to generate scientific and technological knowledge that we transfer to companies through R&D and innovation projects and consultancy, testing and training services.
